Vic Bostik, the lead guitarist of The Rats pop group, is dead. He was found unconscious in his Mayfair flat early this morning. Bostik was rushed to St. Swithin's Hospital, but doctors were unable to save his life. A number of bottles, which had been found in this flat, were taken away by the police.

News 4

There is no more news about the famous Lanstable painting, Norfolk sunset, which was stolen last night from The National Gallery. The painting, which is worth half a million pounds, was given to the gallery in 1975. It hasn't been found yet, and all airports and ports are being watched. Cars and trucks are being searched. A reward of $ 10.000 has been offered for information.

News 5

Jumbo, the Indian elephant which escaped from London zoo this afternoon, has been caught. Jumbo was chased across Regent's Park, and was finally captured at a hot dog stall in regent's Park Road. A tranquillizer gun was used, and Jumbo was loaded onto a truck and was taken back to the zoo. At the zoo, he was examined by the zoo surgeon no damage had been done, and Jumbo will be returned to the elephant house later tonight.

News 6

Jimmy MacTavish, the East field United and Scotland striker, has been transferred. The contract was signed at lunchtime. He was transferred to the American club, Miami galaxy, for $ 3.000.000. MacTavish, aged 23, was bought two years ago for a fee of $ 2000 from a Scottish non-league club.

The Weather Forecast.

Paul and Judy live in Birmingham. It's a large city in the midlands. They're planning a weekend holiday.

Paul : I know, Judy! Why don't we go to Scotland?

Judy : It's a very long way.

Paul : Oh, it isn't too far. Anyway, the motorway's very good, so we can get there quickly.

Judy : But Scotland's often cold at this time of the year. It may snow!

Paul : Well, yesit may but I don't think it will.

Judy : I'm not sure. It is February, and I'm frightened of driving in snow. And we may not be able to find a hotel. They may be closed.

Paul : Oh, that's no problem. I can book a hotel by phone.

Judy : Well, perhaps it's not a bad idea. We may have a beautiful weather.

3.1.

Four Disasters.

Setelah mempelajari, Anda diharapkan dapat berkomunikasi sebagai presenter, sebagai orang yang dapat mengkomunikasikan pengalaman sendiri didepan layar kaca, dengan berpedoman pada model texts yang ada.

Read the followings

“good evening. Our programme tonight is about disasters. This year there have been fires, plane crashed, earthquakes and volcanic eruption. All our guests tonight have survived disasters”.

Hi! I am Bill Daniels. I live in Chicago. I was working in my office on the 28th floor of a skyscraper. I was dictating some letters to my secretary when the fire-bell rang. I rushed out to the lift but it wasn't working. The stairs were full of thick smoke. We couldn't go down, so we had to go up to the roof. When we got there some people were waiting calmly. Others were shouting and screaming wildly. A helicopter managed to land on the roof and rescued six of us before the building collapsed.

My name's Martha Huggins. I was on holiday in the South Pacific and I was staying on Pogohiti, a small island. I was having a rest when the volcano erupted. The noise woke me up. I looked through the window. Everybody was running towards the harbour. I just put on a coat, and ran to the harbour too. I managed to get on a ship. It was leaving when the lava hit the town.

Hello, I'm George green. I'm a farmer. I was working in the field behind my house when I saw the plane. It was on fire. Smoke was coming from the engines, and it was coming down fast. I was running towards my house when it crashed into the trees behind me. I heard a terrible explosion when I woke up, I was lying in a hospital bed.

Good evening. My name's Michael Purt. My wife and I were staying with friends on Santa Monica in the Caribbean. We were having dinner when the earthquake began. Everything shook. All the plates and food fell onto the floor. We were picking everything up when the ceiling fell onto us. We couldn't move, and we had to wait for three hours before help arrived.

3.2. Task 5.

Work in pairs, one of you should act out as the presenter the other one should be the one who survived from the disaster. You have to talk about your own experience, so change the name of the city, the subject and the situation. Please read the model of the texts.

(Anda dapat menceritakan pengalaman sendiri, berpura-pura pernah mengalami bencana, lihat contoh, rubah nama kota, tempat dan situasi sesuai dengan kata anda sendiri).

3.3. Task 6.

Act out an interview, one of you should be the presenter, the other one should be the survivor of the disaster, the other one can be the reporter and the rest can be the cameraman.

Cocokanlah jawaban Anda dengan kunci jawaban yang ada pada bagian akhir modul (BBM) ini.

3.6. Tes Formatif 2.

Read the following text, it is about embarrassing experience.

Hand in hand.

The most embarrassing experience I’ve ever had, happened two years ago. My wife and I had driven into town to do some shopping. The streets were very busy and we were holding hands. Suddenly my wife saw a dress that she liked in a shop window, and stopped. I started looking at some radios in the next window. After a minute or two I reached for my wife's hand. There was a loud scream, and a woman slapped my face. I hadn't taken my wife's hand, I had taken the hand of a complete stranger!

(L. bailey Sheffield, York adapted from Streamline)

Answer these questions.

1. Have you ever had an embarrassing experience?
2. What is the difference between embarrassing and embarrassed?

4.1. Guest Speaker.

- Announcer : This is B.B.C, radio four. Tonight, the first of our new series “The Business World” begins, and Mary Owen, who writes for the Executive Today, is here to introduce the guest speaker.
- Owen : Good evening, and may I introduce Mr. Peter F Drucker, the well-known American management consultant and writer. Now, Mr. Drucker, perhaps you would tell us what the main task of a business executive is.
- Drucker : Well, I’d say that his first job is to get the right things done; in other words, he is expected to be effective.
- Owen : D’you think it’s possible to learn to be effective?
- Drucker : Yes, I do. You see, effectiveness is a kind of habit. Call it a habit of mind if you like.
- Owen : Could you enlarge on that a bit, please?
- Drucker : Right. First, the executive needs to know where his time goes, and then make sure he’s using what little time he can really call his own as usefully as possible.
- Owen : Yes, I can see that.

(adapted from Binham, P. Executive English, Longman, 1969:7)

“The Kang Guru magazine serves three important purposes. Firstly it’s an important resource for people learning the English language. It is very important for people anywhere to try to speak more than one language. But in today’s globalised environment. English is one of the languages that matters very much. Good English speakers can find they can access almost any other part of the world and if Kang Guru can help develop their English language skills then it’s serving a very good purpose.

The second purpose of the Kang Guru magazine is to raise cross cultural awareness to make people from different cultures understand each other better and to enable us to learn more about each other.

The third purpose of Kang Guru magazine is to try to get a better understanding in Indonesia of the AusAID projects, the Australian Government's Overseas AID undertaking here. AusAID has projects in the field of education, health care, government and so on. The work itself is important but it is just as important that work should be known to as many Indonesians as possible and Kang Guru helps us to make sure it's known".
