

Abstract

This research has been background by the student difficulties in study Balaghah. One problem has shown because of the different characteristics between Arabic language and Indonesia language. On that base will be done the research contrastive approach for looking about study object Balaghah which more understanding by student. This method is used by experiment shoot. The research result is study object contrastive that means who serve equality and difference between Balaghah aspects in Arabic language with its comparable in Indonesia language. Based on questionnaire is spread at student. They opinion that lecture use study object Balaghah contrastive will be easier of understanding.